February 1, 2025

The Gate Way Gospel Hour

The Gateway Gospel Hour is a religious broadcast that has been shared with audiences through various media outlets. Originating from the Binghamtown Baptist Church in Middlesboro, Kentucky, this program offers sermons and teachings based on Christian doctrines. It has been available on platforms like YouTube and has been broadcasted on television networks, reaching viewers in different regions including West Virginia, Virginia, East Tennessee, and East Kentucky. The program's outreach extends to Nashville, Tennessee, where it airs on WHTN TV, showcasing the church's commitment to spreading its message through accessible channels. The Gateway Gospel Hour represents a segment of religious media that continues to utilize both traditional and modern means to connect with its audience.